Karen Lucille Hale^[1] (born June 14, 1989^{[3][4]}) is an American actress and singer. In the early stages of her career, she was sometimes referred to as Lucy Kate Hale.^{[5][6]} Hale first came to prominence as one of the five winners of the reality show American Juniors, a children's spin off of American Idol. She is best known for her role as Aria Montgomery on the Freeform series Pretty Little Liars, which won her a People's Choice Award for Favorite Cable TV Actress in 2014. The same year, she released her debut studio album, Road Between.

Personal life

Hale was born in Memphis, Tennessee, the daughter of Julie Knight and Preston Hale.^{[7][8]} She was named after one of her great-grandmothers. Her mother is a registered nurse.^[1] She has an older sister, Maggie,^{[1][9]} and a step-sister, Kirby.^[10] Hale was homeschooled as a child.^[11] During her childhood, she took acting and singing lessons.^[12] In August 2012, Hale revealed she had suffered from an eating disorder.^[13]

Career

Acting

Hale moved to Los Angeles at age 15 in the hopes of getting a record deal.^{[14][15]} Shortly after, she started auditioning and received a minor role on Drake & Josh^[16] and other guest roles on shows such as Ned's Declassified School Survival Guide, The O.C., and How I Met Your Mother. She appeared in two episodes of the Disney Channel show Wizards of Waverly Place.

Hale appeared in NBC's short-lived re-imagining of the Bionic Woman as Becca Sommers, younger sister to title character Jaime Sommers (played by Michelle Ryan).^[7] She made her big screen debut in The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants 2 portraying Effie, the younger sister
